

Ejection Day Hat
By
Elizabeth Sovern, Craftivist
Knit one, Change too!™

This hat is subtle enough to wear to work but still proclaims your fall goal! Pattern is free but please consider donating to a Democratic candidate running for office.

Yarn weight: Worsted or Dk

Yardage: Main Color Brooklyn Tweed Shelter Colorway: Old World (Blue 120 yards)
Contrast Color Colorway: 23 Fossil (White approx 30 yards)

Needles: 16 inch circular needles in Size 6 and 7 for worsted or Size 7 and 8 for dk or size to get gauge.

Gauge: 5 stitches to 1 inch

Finished hat circumference: 20 inches rib unstretched

One size fits most

Directions:

1. Cast on 96 stitches with the smaller needles using MC yarn and join in the round being careful not to twist. Place row marker.
2. Knit 1, purl 1 for 1 inch.
3. Switch to the larger needles. From here on you will knit every round. Start the chart below- you will be knitting 4 rows in the main color before the numbers begin. Please note the chart is for 100 stitches but you are only using 96. Disregard the last 4 stitches in the chart.
4. Knit until 7 inches from beginning of hat.

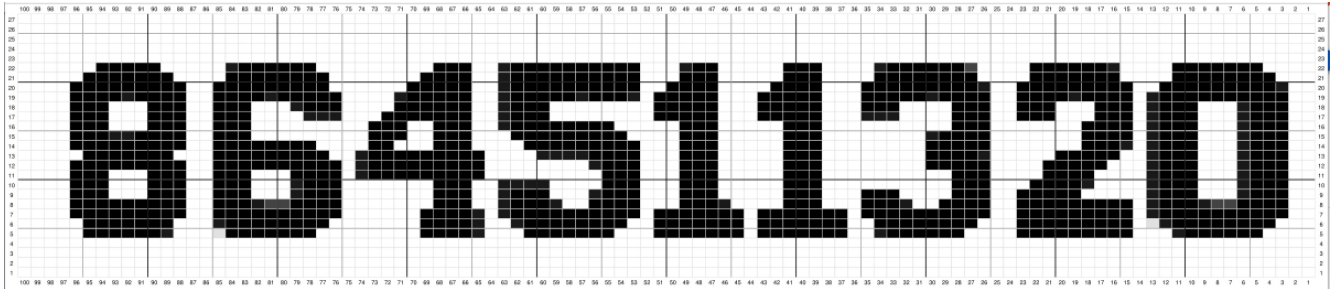

Crown decreases

1. Knit 10, K2 tog. Repeat until the beginning of row marker.
2. Knit 9, K2 tog, repeat until end of row.

3. Continue decreasing as established until there are 8 stitches left.
5. Cut yarn and draw through remaining 8 stitches securing and weaving end inside. Block and rock!

Copyright Elizabeth Sovern, Craftivist

For more progressive politics and craftivism please join our Facebook group:
<https://www.facebook.com/groups/Craftivist.net/?ref=bookmarks>

For more craftivist pictures follow us on instagram:
<https://www.instagram.com/craftivistgram/>

Copyright Elizabeth Sovern, Craftivist ©